6. The Inspector-General of Prisons reserves to himself the right of rejecting any tender without assigning any reason for so doing.

7. The deposit of the successful tenderers will be retained and will be forfeited if they fail to execute the contract bond within one week from the date of acceptance of their contracts being made known to them.

8. The contract for supplies shall be entered into for the period specified above, at the end of which alone final adjustment of accounts will take place. In the meanwhile, to facilitate supplies, advances to the extent of the value of the supplies made in a month will be made to the contractor at the end of that month, by which time, bills with vouchers must be submitted duly signed by him (Contractor) in the presence of the Superintendent. The amount thus advanced will be set off against the amount payable to the Contractor at the end of the period for things supplied by him. These advances are not liable to be attached by Civil Courts.

9. Store rooms will be made over to the Contractor in which they can keep all non-perishable articles, of which not less than one month's supply must always be in store, i.e., the quantity in stock plus the quantity issued to prisoners in the month should not be less than a month's supply. The Government shall have a lien on the grains, etc., stored from time to time by the Contractor on the Prison premises, for the amounts advanced to him from time to time. Perishable articles such as vegetables, mutton, etc., must be at the Prison by 7 A.M. daily.

10. A fine not exceeding Rs. 50 will be levied at the discretion of the Superintendent of the Prison and subject to the approval of the Inspector-General of Prisons in each case for any infringement of the stipulation of the contract for the supply of inferior articles and if frequently violated the contract may be annulled and the security confiscated to the Government.

11. The decision of the Superintendent subject to the approval of and revision by, the Inspector-General of Prisons, to be final in all questions of infringement of contract.

12. Any further information can be obtained by applying to the Office of the Superintendent, Thippaganahalli.

13. The contract will be subject to confirmation by the Inspector-General of Prisons who reserves to himself the right of rejecting all or any of the tenders.

14. If the Contractor is unwilling or unable to carry out his agreement he shall give at least one month's notice and shall be liable to forfeit the security money to Government.

15. The contractor will also be bound to make good to Government any loss which may arise from his failure or by Government having to purchase the articles specified in the contract in the local markets at the higher rates than those contracted for.

16. Articles of rations should be brought to the Camp between the hours of 8 and 11 A.M. and 3 and 4 P.M.

17. Articles rejected by the Superintendent and the Medical Officer on the day of inspection should be removed immediately from the prison premises failing which the same will be placed outside the main gate at the risk of the contractor.

18. The contractor or his agent is not allowed to have transactions of any description with the prisoners or warders of the Camp. Any infringement of the kind will be seriously dealt with by the Superintendent.

N.B.—No concession of any kind will be allowed in the contract.
